

MEMBERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. John Tindal

MR. TINDAL is the board's current chair and represents the Third Judicial Circuit. He is the superintendent of Clarendon School District Two. Mr. Tindal resides in Manning and holds degrees from Morris College and Winthrop University. He is a Rotarian, a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, and is serving as Superintendents' Division president for the South Carolina Association of School Administrators. He was named the South Carolina Rural Summit's Rural Educator of the Year in 2006.

Mr. Al
Simpson

MR. SIMPSON is the board's chair-elect. He is a businessman who resides in Lancaster and represents the Sixth Judicial Circuit. He attended the University of South Carolina–Lancaster. He is a school improvement council volunteer in the Lancaster County schools, a Lancaster County Community Foundation trustee, and is current chairman of the county's Republican Party.

Mrs. Patsy
Pye

MRS. PYE resides in Summerville and represents the First Judicial Circuit. She is coordinator of the Leadership Academy for Dorchester School District Two and has degrees from Charleston Southern University and The Citadel. She is active in national and state professional associations and has been a National Distinguished Principal, Palmetto Finest winner, and National School of Excellence winner.

Ms. Virginia
Wilson

MS. WILSON is a teacher who resides in Denmark and represents the Second Judicial Circuit. She holds degrees from Voorhees College and South Carolina State University. She is active in professional associations for educators, was Teacher of the Year for Richard Carroll Primary School in Bamberg District One, and has been recognized for service by NuTau Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Mr. Hampton
Hubbard

MR. HUBBARD resides in McColl and represents the Fourth Judicial Circuit. A graduate of St. Andrews College in Laurinburg, NC, he teaches at the School of Discovery in Clio and holds National Board certification. Mr. Hubbard is treasurer of Marlboro Players, serves on the Clio Country Club board of directors and is a member of the Palmetto State Teachers Association.

Ms. Diane Sumpter

MS. SUMPTER resides in Columbia and represents the Fifth Judicial Circuit. She is a native of Florida and a graduate of the University of South Carolina. Ms. Sumpter is active in numerous state and local business and civic affairs. She is an active member of the NAACP board, Richland School District Two Foundation and the South Carolina Council on Competitiveness.

Ms. Libby
Swad

MS. SWAD is a retired teacher who lives in Gaffney and represents the Seventh Judicial Circuit. A graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College, she is current president of the Humane Society of Cherokee County and vice president of the Republican Women's Club. She's also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Spartanburg County Medical Alliance, in addition to being the founder of "A Touch of Grace."

Mr. Charles McKinney

MR. MCKINNEY is a retired teacher, assistant superintendent, and principal who represents the Eighth Judicial Circuit. A Clinton resident, he has degrees from Erskine College, Converse College, and the University of Georgia. He's been active in school volunteer and civic organizations. He retired from the S.C. Army National Guard and received the Order of the Palmetto in 1994.

Mrs. Terrye Seckinger

MRS. SECKINGER resides at the Isle of Palms and represents the Ninth Judicial Circuit. A Clemson University graduate and full-time homemaker, she previously worked in sales and marketing. Mrs. Seckinger has served on numerous state boards and commissions, is active in state and local civic affairs, and is a character education instructor at Palmetto Christian Academy.

Mr. Ron
Wilson

MR. WILSON is a precious metals dealer and businessman who resides in Easley and represents the Tenth Judicial Circuit. A Tennessee native and graduate of Sharon High School and MacKenzie Vocational Technical School, Mr. Wilson is active in the Sons of Confederate Veterans, is a board member for Southeastern Theological Seminary and is very involved in issues concerning the environment and sustainable agriculture.

Mr. Jessie
Curtis

MR. CURTIS is a retired school administrator who resides in McCormick and represents the Eleventh Judicial Circuit. An Oklahoma native, he graduated from Indiana State and from Clemson University. He served on the McCormick County School Board and has been active in church and civic organizations including Lions International. He is a retired twenty-year veteran of the U.S. Navy's nuclear submarine service.

Mr. Trip
DuBard

MR. DUBARD is a businessman who resides in Florence and represents the Twelfth Judicial Circuit. He is a graduate of Duke University and Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government. Active in local civic organizations, Mr. DuBard is a charter member and chairman of The School Foundation, a private endowment for Florence School District 1.

Dr. Daniel Varat

DR. VARAT is a Greenville resident who represents the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. He is research director for the South Carolina Senate's Transportation Committee. He earned his doctorate at the University of Mississippi and has degrees from Louisiana State University and Furman. He is a Greenville County First Steps board member and a volunteer for Wildlife Rehabilitation of Greenville

Mr. Benjamin
Mitchell

MR. MITCHELL is a retired educator who represents the five counties that compromise the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. He resides in Walterboro in Colleton County. He is a graduate of Colleton High School (1967) and Denmark Technical College (1969).

Mr. Joe Isaac

MR. ISAAC is a past chair of the State Board and represents the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit. A retired high school administrator residing in Pawleys Island, Mr. Isaac is a graduate of Winyah High School and The Citadel, where he was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame. He's been a volunteer for the YMCA and for St. Michael's Catholic School, a volunteer baseball coach for Georgetown High School, and a Hospice board member.

Dr. J. Britt
Blackwell

DR. BLACKWELL is a former trustee for Rock Hill School District Three who represents the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Clemson University and graduated from the School of Optometry at the University of Alabama Medical Center. He served on the S.C. Optometric Association's executive committee for three years and has been named to many national and regional Who's Who publications, including the 1993/1994 Dictionary of International Biography.

Mrs. Kristin Maguire

MRS. MAGUIRE is the governor's appointee to the board. She resides in Clemson and is a member of the S.C. Public Charter School Association's Advisory Board. She's a co-founder of South Carolina Parents Involved in Education, a grassroots organization committed to public school excellence through meaningful parental involvement.

Updated February 2007